

Guillermo Ignacio García Alcocer

garcialcocer@gmail.com

EDUCATION

Master's degree in Finance, ITAM. Special distinction.

Bachelor's degree in Economics, Instituto Tecnológico Autónomo de México (ITAM). Special distinction.

Diploma in Preparation and Socioeconomic Appraisal of Public Sector Projects, ITAM.

International Taxation Program, ITAM–Harvard.

Courses at Oxford, UT and George Washington University.

RECOGNITION AND PROFESSIONAL ACTIVITIES

Appointed by the Mexican Senate as Chairman of the Energy Regulatory Commission in 2016.

Shortlisted for Chairman of the National Hydrocarbons Commission in 2014.

Member of the Mexican Council on Foreign Relations (COMEXI) since 2019.

Member of the Advisory Council of the Electric Power Research Institute (EPRI), 2018–2020.

Member of Reforma newspaper's Editorial Board in 2020, 2021 and 2022.

Speaker at investor forums (BBVA, Bank of America, Citi, HSBC, Santander, Profuturo and others) and international forums (CERAWEEK, Offshore Technology Conference and Natural Gas Intelligence).

First place, 2001 National Economics Award (Citi-Banamex Award), Thesis category.

First place, 2001 ExITAM Award, Economics Thesis category.

Named among the 100 Leaders in the Energy Sector by Petróleo y Energía magazine, 2017–2024.

PROFESSIONAL EXPERIENCE

August 2019–present: academic, speaker and consultant.

ITAM executive: Director of Planning and previously Director of Development (executive roles since June 2021); Professor of Microeconomics and Economic Regulation since August 2019.

September 2019–present: speaker at national and international energy forums.

May 2022–present: energy consultant and independent expert in international energy arbitration proceedings.

August 2023–present: Independent Board Member, Énestas.

March 2025–present: Independent Board Member, Riverstone in Mexico.

April 2016–June 2019: Chairman of the Energy Regulatory Commission (CRE), appointed by the Mexican Senate.

Head of the collegial regulatory body responsible for national regulation of electricity and the transportation, storage, distribution and trade of hydrocarbons.

Promoted private investment of US$10 billion in electricity generation (three long-term auctions), US$700 million in distributed generation and US$5 billion in refined petroleum product storage.

July 2012–April 2016: Ministry of Energy (SENER). Acting Undersecretary for Hydrocarbons (September–November 2012); Head of the Hydrocarbon Exploration and Extraction Policy Unit (June 2014–April 2016); Director General for Hydrocarbon Exploration and Production (July 2012–May 2014).

Led the technical team responsible for designing the hydrocarbons component of the 2013–2014 Energy Reform.

Responsible for awarding entitlements to Pemex in Round Zero.

Led the technical design of areas and contracts tendered in Rounds One and Two.

Board member of Pemex and several of its subsidiaries.

Promoted private investment of US$5.8 billion in exploration and production (Rounds One and Two), and US$3 billion in seismic studies.

June 2009–June 2012: SENER, Director General for Hydrocarbon Industrial Development.

Responsible for designing policies and regulation, and overseeing commercial, industrial, transportation and storage activities in the hydrocarbons sector.

Promoted private investment of US$12.2 billion in gas pipelines and US$5 billion in a petrochemical complex.

Board member of Pemex and several of its subsidiaries.

February 2007–May 2009: SENER, Coordinator of Advisors to the Undersecretary for Hydrocarbons.

Coordinated studies for the 2008 Energy Reform.

Member of the Technical Committee of the Trust to Promote National Content.

Member of the Technical Committee of the SENER–Conacyt Hydrocarbons Technology Fund Trust.

September 2003–February 2007: National Commission for the Retirement Savings System (CONSAR). Deputy Director General of Planning (2007) and Director of Governing Bodies (2003–2005).

Strategic planning and Technical Secretary to CONSAR's governing bodies.

Authorization of retirement fund administrators and investment companies (AFORES and SIEFORES).

February 1995–August 2003: Ministry of Finance and Public Credit (SHCP). Analyst, Department Head, Advisor (Deputy Director and Director), and Director of Fiscal Coordination and Tax Incentive Studies.

1994: Member of ITAM's junior Economics faculty.